Figure 1. Graphical model of the hierarchical Neural Process structure in NPISeg3D. The model captures both scene-level and object-level uncertainties by introducing two levels of latent variables: a global scene-level latent variable z_s shared across all objects in a scene, and object-level latent variables z_o^m specific to object m.